

UYZM(K)

The UYZM series is ideal for pumping of domestic, municipal and industrial waste water, faeces and sludge, also with coarse, long-fibre and plait-forming constituents, as well as pumped media containing gas. The non clogging vortex impeller with a big free passage allows for maximum operational safety. Oil chamber sensors constantly monitor the state of the pump and will alert in case of malfunction.